

EU Commissioner for Fisheries, Joe Borg, introduced to the CCB activities on the protection of the wild Baltic salmon

The EU Commissioner for Fisheries, Joe Borg, was offered and accepted a CCB salmon tie with the text "This person promotes the protection of the wild Baltic salmon".

The Commissioner for Maritime Affairs and Fisheries, DG MARE, was one of the speakers at the conference on Baltic Sea Fisheries: Lessons Learned and Future Perspectives, in Saltsjöbaden, Stockholm, Sweden, on 1-2 October 2009, with 150 participants connected to fisheries management from the Baltic Sea region and wider Europe. CCB participated and displayed and distributed CCB printed materials connected to Baltic fisheries management.

Borg said "the upcoming EC Baltic salmon management plan will certainly contribute to the protection of salmon in the Baltic Sea".

Commissioner Borg receiving a CCB salmon tie from CCB Executive Secretary, Gunnar Norén.

Commissioner Borg studies the CCB map of threatened Baltic salmon rivers, together with the CCB Exec secr Norén.