

THE ROUNDTABLE
‘TO SEE AND SAVE: CREATING AN ACCESSIBLE EDUCATIONAL ENVIRONMENT IN SPECIALLY PROTECTED NATURE AREAS’

21 March 2019

Organiser: Independent Not-for-Profit Organisation – the Social and Educational Project Development Centre Aura

Venue and date: Kaliningrad, Ibis Hotel, Warsaw Conference Room (Moskovsky Prospect, 52)

Aim: To present the best Russian and foreign practices in Specially Protected Nature Areas (SPNA)

Topics:

- Accessible infrastructure on eco trails;
- Special features of the ‘live lessons’ in nature;
- interactive sites and objects d'art: how to ‘tactfully’ furnish an ecological trail in harmony with nature?

PROGRAMME

14:00-14:05	Opening the Roundtable ‘To See and Save: Creating an Accessible Educational Environment in Specially Protected Nature Areas’
14:05-14:20	Welcoming address	Dagmar Hillebrand , Representative of the German Consulate in Kaliningrad Peter Torkler , Managing Director of the Baltic Sea Conservation Foundation (Baltcf) Anastasia Skrebtsova , Deputy Director for Environmental Awareness Raising and Tourism of the Curonian Spit National Park Mikhail Durkin , Executive Secretary of Coalition Clean Baltic (CCB)
14:20-14:40	Project output presentation	Svetlana Nigmatullina , Director of the Independent Not-for-Profit Organisation – the Social and Educational Project Development Centre Aura
14:40-16:00	Experts’ presentations	Igor Kovach , Stolby Nature Reserve (Krasnoyarsk) The Game of Cognition, or ... Cognition in Game? (activity experience and infrastructure development of the Stolby Reserve aimed at creative and inclusive environmental awareness raising among children and adults) Svetlana Belova , Director of Machaon International (Slovakia) Effective Methods for Creating the Infrastructure and Promoting Protected Areas: the Experience of European Protected Areas that are Leaders in the Environmental Education

		Alexandra Yakovleva, Deputy Director for Development, Kenozersky National Park (Arkhangelsk region) Borderless Environmental Awareness Raising in Kenozersky National Park Alois Lang, Head of the Eco-Tourism and PR Department of the Neusiedler See-Seewinkel National Park (Austria) Educational Projects in the National Park Neusiedlersee – seewinkel, Austria
16:00-16:20	Coffee Break
16:20-17:30	Experts' presentations	Lennart Gladh, Senior Advisor of Coalition Clean Baltic (CCB) Preservation by Learning: SPNA Experience of Sweden in Nature Conservation and Environmental Awareness Raising Eva Arnemo, Upplandsstiftelsen Foundation Representative, The Successful Implementation of the FiNA Programme – Human health in Nature for All, Creation of an Accessible Environment to Unique Nature Sites Janis Matulis, Latvian Green Movement Nature Site Accessibility Certification in Latvia
17:30-18:30	Discussion
18:30-18:45	Wrap-up and closing address
19:00	Dinner

Moderators:

Anastasia Skrebtsova, Deputy Director for Environmental Awareness Building and Tourism of the Curonian Spit National Park (Kaliningrad)

Mikhail Durkin, Executive Secretary of Coalition Clean Baltic (CCB) (Stockholm)

Contact details:

Tel: +79211024770

e.mail: hello@anoaura.ru

www.anoaura.ru